

On The Bit Meeting – November 2018

Meeting called to order at 7:01

Read old minutes

Attendance: Robert, Tammy, Ginka, Mary Lynne, Tom, Kelly & JJ

Kelly moved to approve the minutes. Tammy seconded.

Treasurers report: Bank balance: $4012.36

The only fees were credit card fees and we had interest income. Tammy moved to accept the report and Robert seconded.

Old Business:

Anna put an email out for officers, so the current slate will continue

President: Ginka

Vice President: Kelly

Treasurer : Tom

Secretary: Anna

Show Planning: July 20-21

Heather will help run the show. Tom gave Ginka checks for USEF and RMDS. If you renew RMDS by Dec. 32, it will be $65 and if after that it will $70. Please renew your membership.

Jess has reached out to judges now that we have a confirmed date. She will keep us updated as she gets availability.

Maybe Anna will look into the temporary stalls that Windy Wyoming has.

Kelly will talk to Sharleen Castle about getting some stalling from the Range -next to Gem City Vet.

New Business:

Art museum tree. We will hold off till next year to submit a tree. We missed the deadline this year.

Holiday Party: Friday Dec 14 at the Wolfe's. Starting at 6:00. Bring a gift for a white elephant exchange. Maximum $30. Bring a dish to share. Anna send a doodle pole for what to bring so we can coordinate a great meal. Jess will bring mini pecan pies. We will not have a meeting in December.

Tammy & Robert – smoked meat – brisket

Mary Lynne & Larry – pies

Ginka & Jan- Salad

Tom & Kelly – Potato dish and wine.

We talked about doing a clinic in the spring – Kelly and Tara will write a grant. We talked about Kristi Wysocki or Jessica Greer or Debbie Riehl-Rodriguez or Ulf Wadeborn. Need to pick a date in January.

Dressage foundation for the grant. Lincoln Nebraska.

To show in the recognized show, you don't have to be a member USEF, you can pay a fee for opportunity classes. You don't have to pay the non member fees. The opportunity classes are for entry level or training level show people.

Presentation: Kelly and Tom will present something in January. Straightening out legs – pigeon toes.

Banquet – deadline is Dec. 31. The form is on the RMDS website. You can pay online or mail the form with a check. They are not taking any reservations over the phone. It costs $43.00 per person. You have meal choices and it will be at the Renaissance on Quebec. They will have a block of rooms so make your reservations early. It will be January 5th. It would be a blast if a bunch of us went.

Safe Sport for USEF members- you have to complete the 3 Safe Sport training modules if you want to compete. You can complete it online by January 1, 2019..

Meeting Adjourned. Tom moved and Robert seconded. 8:08 PM.