

Terri A. Rocovich
Rocovich Equestrian ~ Rocking Horse Ranch
Training, Boarding & Equine Care

744 Haverford Road
Ramona, CA 92065
(858) 335-3274

A USDF Gold, Silver and Bronze Medalist, Ms. Rocovich owns Rocking Horse Ranch, a boarding, training, retirement and rehabilitation facility in Ramona, California. She has trained and coached multiple riders and horses to the FEI levels in dressage, coaches lower-level Eventers, Eventing Dressage at all levels; and has mentored the careers of several young trainers in Eventing and Dressage. Terri teaches clinics across the country, emphasizing the biomechanics between horse and rider, which is essential for a seamless partnership with the horse, as well as competitive success.

She competed at CDI Grand Prix on her own horse, Uiver, who was retired from CDIs in 2022. Uiver competed in 24 CDIs and their accomplishments together include:

- 2019 Dressage Affair CDI – GP & GP Special Champion
- 2019 Del Mar National CDI GP Freestyle – 4th
- 2018 Dutta Corp. GP Dressage Ranking – Top 15
- 2018 Del Mar National CDI GP Freestyle – 4th
- 2017 CDS Grand Prix Grand Prix Freestyle Grand Champion
- 2017 USDF Region 7 Grand Prix Reserve Champion
- 2016 Olympics – Long List
- 2015 USDF Region 7 Champions - Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle.
- 2015 U.S. Dressage finals - 7th GP Freestyle.

Terri has ridden with, and learned from top international clinicians Conrad Schumacher, Carl Hester, and Charlotte Dujardin.

Ms. Rocovich is a USDF L Judge Program Graduate with Distinction, currently judging schooling shows. She is a USPC National Examiner for Eventing and Dressage Certifications, successfully prepping many students through the "HA" and "A" levels. She is a USEA Certified Instructor, and competed as an Eventer through the Preliminary level.

In addition to her equestrian pursuits, Ms. Rocovich holds advanced degrees in Marketing, Public Relations and Journalism. She also works as a freelance writer and marketing consultant.

